

14U Tryouts This Saturday!!!

Posted by tobylarsen71@gmail.com - 26 Jul 2018 14:30

Atlanta Assassins 14U will be having tryouts. We are out of Grayson, GA but distance is not an issue. We are looking for '04's and '05's and exceptional '06's.

We do not care about location as we will practice on Sundays a couple times per month for an extended period of time that day. Therefore, there is no need to live in the area in which we practice.

We are moving to a very successful association to bring our girls to the next level. We cannot share who that is at this time but will be able to soon. We are having tryouts Saturday at Grayson High School at 6:00pm. This will change our team name, increase the level of training and give us exposure that only few teams in the state have. We are also taking the necessary steps to play in showcase tournaments that will allow our girls to be seen by college coaches over the next several years. See attached.

Contact me for location. 6:00pm on July 28th and August 1st. Any questions, please contact me on Messenger, Email -
